Bill Fournet

Stage Introduction:

Bill Fournet is the President and CEO of The Persimmon Group. In addition to leading The Persimmon Group since its inception in 2004, he also leads in the practice areas of business and workforce strategies, project and performance management, and leadership development. He consults clients ranging from Fortune 500 companies to small and mid-sized businesses in various industry verticals, including energy, financial services, aerospace, telecommunications, government and human resources. Bill's experience in managing high-performance teams has directly influenced the unique business philosophy and atmosphere that has created one of the leading small businesses in our region today.

In 2011, The Persimmon Group was awarded the Blue Ribbon by the U.S. Chamber of Commerce for its success as one of the leading small businesses in America.

Bill earned a bachelor's degree from Vanderbilt University and a master's degree from Oklahoma State University. He is a member of the Oklahoma State Chamber Board of Directors, and in 2010, he was named Small Business Person of the Year by his region's Metro Chamber of Commerce. Bill and his wife, Christy, have been married for 16 years and reside in Tulsa, Oklahoma with their three sons.
